

Yes, I want to learn more about Safety Service Patrols from across the nation!

What are SafeHighways.org and Safe Highway Matters?

SafeHighways.org and the Safe Highway Matters Quarterly Newsletter are part of the effort to build a nationwide community for all members of state and federal departments of transportation, highway authorities, private operators, academics, and advocates for safe roads. Safety Service Patrols represent a highly effective and discrete program within highway operations and ITS.

Why subscribe to Safe Highway Matters?

We aim to serve you. We find out the latest news on patrols across the country and share recent developments with you. We also research Safety Service Patrol relevant topics to find the best practices used throughout the industry that ensure safer roads for you and for the motorists traveling the roads you patrol. Tell us what is needed and what's relevant. We invite you to sign up and we welcome your ideas and suggestions.

Subscribe Today!

Log on to www.safehighways.org to subscribe today.

While you're there click to follow us on Twitter and like our Facebook page!